

Name _____

Date _____

Activities

Activity A: Let's review.

1. A _____ is a verb form that always end in ing and acts like a noun.
2. In this lesson you learned about two ways that gerunds can be used in a sentence. Name them: 1. _____ 2. _____
3. Can you have more than one gerund in a sentence? _____
4. A _____ is a gerund and all the words needed to complete its meaning.

Activity B: Find the gerunds in the following sentences and underline them. Remember there can be more than one gerund in a sentence. Look for verbs that act like nouns.

1. Skating makes Janet happy.
2. Amber loves swimming, hiking and canoeing at camp.
3. Riding a bike is my favorite exercise.
4. Eating cookies in the car made a mess.
5. Susan enjoys reading and sewing.
6. My teacher planned a gym day of running and jumping.

Activity C: Write a sentence using the gerund walking as the subject of the sentence.

---

---

---